OFFICIAL NOTES

This afternoon it is our pleasure and our privilege to extend warm and hearty greetings to our friends from Australia. Welcome to Fartown. May your memories of your brief stay in Huddersfield be very pleasant ones. May your chosen team for today's game play a worthy part in producing a sporting encounter that will be recalled with pleasure for years to come.

The bond of kinship between England and Australia is a strong one, and we in Huddersfield have had happy associations in the many great players who have come from Australia to wear our famous claret and gold jersey. From the days of Albert Rosenfeld (happily still with us and a regular attender at Fartown) right through the years to our present-day Johnny Hunter we have had a long succession of stars who have given splendid service to our club and to the game.

There was "Paddy" Walsh, who signed on with "Rozzy" at Fartown in Feb., 1909, Tommy Gleeson, Con Byrne, Ernie Mills, Syd Harris, Alby Carr, Ray Markham, Tommy Grahame and Ron Bailey. The latter returned "down-under" in 1940, subsequently captaining Australia in Test Match football and also helping to give the Kangaroos one of their stars of the present by his coaching of Don Adams.

Recent years have seen the great trio of Cooper, Devery and Hunter, who worthily maintained the high standard of football at Fartown and whose exploits are still fresh in the mind.

Yes, Huddersfield and Australia have much in common, including the belief that when it is properly played Rugby League Football is the Greatest Game of All. Not always does the standard of play warrant that high title, but we look to the two teams this afternoon to bear out the truth of the assertion.

Interval Music

As a tribute to the Tourists, the Lockwood Band will play the Classic March entitled "Australasia" during the interval. Also, when the teams come out for the start of the game, they will be musically greeted with "Waltzing Matilda" and "Claret and Gold."

In Brief

The Tourists will be given a civic reception at the Town Hall by the Mayor of Huddersfield (Ald. H. A. Bennie Gray) on their arrival in the town. After the game they will be the guests of the H.C. & A.C. at an informal gathering at the Greenhead Masonic Hall.

With the First Test Match only a week away today's game will be something like a "Test Trial" for the Kangaroos.

Tour Captains

Not many people would be able to name all the Australian Tour Captains. Here they are:

1908-09—Dinny Lutge.
1911-12—C. H. McKivatt.
1921-22—Les Cubitt.
1929-30—Tom Gorman.
1933-34—Frank McMillan.
1937-38—Wally Prigg.
1948-49—Colin Maxwell.
1952-53—Clive Churchill.
- 1956—Ken Kearney.

It is worthy of note that on the 1948-49 trip the Australians had three different captains in the three Tests. They were Colin Maxwell, Wally O'Connell and Bill Tyquin (the latter an elder brother of the present tourist).

Flashback

Saturday, November 10th, 1956—an important date in this season's Fartown fixture list, bringing as it does the eagerly awaited visit of the Australian Tour Team.

But November 10th has another important place in Fartown and Rugby League history. It was on this day, fifty years ago, that Harold Wagstaff played his first game of senior football. He was only 15½ when he made his debut for us at the Barley Mow in an age when radio, television and atomic development were dreams of the future.

Harold Wagstaff is remembered as the "Prince of Centres," and he was as well-known in Australia as over here for he led two English Tour Teams "down-under." He died in 1939, but the fame of "Waggy" will never fade so long as the game of R.L. football is played.

Clive Churchill (Vice-Capt.) Rated in Australia the best full-back in post-war football. Had played thirty two consecutive Tests before missing this year's games against New Zealand through a broken wrist. Made splendid return to club football after injury recovered. Is the most fearless tackling full-back Australia has had and is a great attacking player. May have lost a little speed but is playing with greater judgment. Becomes the first back and only the second player to make three trips to England (the other being Wally Prigg). Skipper on 1952 tour.

Gordon Clifford. First overseas trip but played for Australia in second test against Kiwis this year, making great debut despite breaking wrist early in game. An attacking full-back with a lot of speed. Safe handler, good defender and a great goal-kicker. Was a schoolboy champion as five-eighth and centre and started club football in 1948. Has been in first grade since 1951, and was a popular choice for this tour.

Don "Bandy" Adams. Nuggetty and bowlegged, Adams was the star of the Australian season and was outstanding in Tests against New Zealand. Plays either wing without worrying and is a most determined player. Scrupulously clean he sickens his opponents with heavy tackles and he is extremely hard to hold because of his build. Is a terrific favourite with Sydney Cricket Ground crowds. Was coached by Col Maxwell and former Fartowner Ron Bailey at Maitland where his family has a farm. Has played nine matches for N.S.W. and was in all Tests against the Kiwis. Scored 27 tries in 15 games.

Denis Flannery. A 1952 Kangaroo. His career has been hampered by injuries but is a solid winger with lots of speed and is hard to stop. Was schoolboy sprint champion at college in Brisbane and later became a chemist. Then took over an Ipswich Hotel owned by his father in law, Dan Dempsey, a former great Test forward. Flannery has been in Test football since 1950 when he played against the Lions, was in the 1954 World Cup team and has been a Queensland representative winger since 1948.

Ian Moir. The fastest man in the team, he won the Canberra Gift pro-sprint footrace worth £500. Was a beach sprint champion earlier in his career and can outpace any player in Australian Rugby League. A brilliant type of winger with a dazzling sidestep Moir scores the most spectacular tries. Injury cost him this tour four years ago but he was with the 1954 World Cup team. In winning first Test against Kiwis this year and missed others through injury.

Des McGovern. From the famous Queensland football nursery, Toowoomba.

A consistent player with Queensland for many years. Started in League as a half and was a reserve for Ipswich against Gt. Britain in 1946 when only 18. Toured with 1952 Kangaroos and with Australian team to New Zealand in 1953. Was in two Tests against the Kiwis this year.

Dicky Poole. Captain-coach of the strong Newtown Club in Sydney for the past two seasons. One of Australia's greatest players in the Kiwi Tests this year, and a last-minute selection for the third Test against France last year. Developed into a very rugged player who has shown outstanding form on wet ground. Dribbles ball like a soccer player. Played League since a tiny schoolboy and has been in first grade since 1950. Played for Sydney versus Great Britain in 1954 and reserve for Third Test that year. Intelligent type of player who will develop still further on tour.

Kevin O'Brien. Utility back of the party, being able to play full-back, wing, centre or five-eighth. In his first game for N.S.W. this season he was centre, full-back and five eighth at various stages of the match. Joined St. George in 1954 and has played over 60 matches without missing one. Was full-back for St. George in 1954, centre and winger in 1955 and centre this year. Played on wing for Sydney Colts against France last year and in inter-state games this year. Is a good goal-kicker.

Alex Watson. Big, straight-running centre who is at the peak of his form. Made winning break in second Test against Kiwis this year. Been tutored by Duncan Hall in his Brisbane Club. A most penetrating centre, Watson impressed when in England in 1954 with the World Cup team. Toured New Zealand with Australia in 1953. Played in all three Tests against the 1954 Lions and also starred against France in last year's Tests.

Tom Payne. Baby of the side and one with a great future ahead of him. Has been coached by the redoubtable Mick Madsen and Duncan Thompson at Toowoomba. Was a first grader at 18, first as five-eighth and then at centre. In first season of representative football this year was selected as reserve back for the Kiwi Test. Played for Queensland against N.S.W. and Kiwis. Has plenty of speed, is a good handler and is a sound tackler.

Ian Johnston. Played as a junior in Newcastle before joining Vic Hey at Parramatta in 1948. Was centre alongside Hey and in 1949 won trip to New Zealand with Australian team. Played 93 first-grade games with Parramatta before going to country. Returned to Sydney this year as centre with Western Suburbs. Played only a few minor representative games later in the season but every critic tipped him for selection

Bobby Banks. Comes from a footballing family with father, uncles, cousins all well-known in Newcastle district. Real name is-Marjoribanks but this has been abbreviated with all the family's footballers. Started his football at Central Newcastle. Played for North Queensland against France in 1951 and in 1952 played for Queensland. Toured New Zealand with Australian team in 1953 and was selected for all three tests against Great Britain in 1954, missing one through injury. Also toured with World Cup team 1954. Duncan Thompson rates him the best team player he has seen for years.

Keith Holman. A great player in England in 1952 but is better now. The most rugged half-back Australia has had in many years. Has the enthusiasm of a schoolboy and plays every game as hard as a Test. Played in all three 1950 Tests and has hardly-missed one against Great Britain, France or N.Z. since. Has played in 25 tests, 29 games for N.S.W., 11 for Sydney versus Country and several minor matches. Struck peak form against Kiwis

Cyril Connell. Son of the team manager. Plays at Rockhampton having learned the game in Brisbane and at Toowoomba. Queensland's captain this year and is one of the most experienced backs in the side, having played for Queensland since 1952. Reserve for 1954 Test against Great Britain and is equally useful as five-eighth, the position in which he starred in two of the three Kiwi Tests this year.

Tom Tyquin. Brother of Bill Tyquin, vice-captain of the 1948 Kangaroos. Comes from Harry Bath's old club, Southern Suburbs, Brisbane. Played for Queensland against America in 1953 and in 1954 gave up football to study for his health inspector's certificate. Last year played for Queensland in all matches and against France. Played in all three Tests against Kiwis this year and was a big success.

Ian Doyle. Brother of Joe Doyle who toured with 1933 Kangaroos. Has speed of a back and has represented Toowoomba as centre and winger. Came into prominence for Toowoomba against France and this year has been a star in all the Tests against the Kiwis. Wears glasses off-field but is a good handler when playing, and a fine goal-kicker.

Don, Furner. Comes from the famous Balmain District in Sydney but has had all his football success from Toowoomba. Went to Toowoomba as a junior in 1952 and has been in the town's inter-city team ever since. Has been a Queensland State player since 1954 and last year was reserve forward for last two Tests with France.

This year was reserve forward for all three tests against Kiwis. Tried his hand as heavyweight boxer and fought for State Championship in 1954. Also a goal-kicker. Always plays in headgear.

Bernie Purcell. Been in first-grade in Sydney since 1948 first with Wests and later with South Sydney. The highest scoring forward Sydney has had since Frank Burge and has broken all scoring records for Souths. Is a great goalkicker with the temperament to kick goals when badly needed. Played in the Third Test in Sydney in 1950. A dashing forward with plenty of pace, and has great reputation in N.S.W. Has scored over 1,000 points in all types of matches during his career. Clubmate of Churchill and Moir.

Kel O'Shea. Comes from North Queensland but has played in Sydney with Western Suburbs this year. Was a centre in North Queensland in 1951 and was in second row for North Queensland against Kiwis in 1952. Played for N.S.W. against Queensland in 1953-4-5 but Army duties restricted his football in 1955. Played in all three Tests against Lions in 1954 and this year was in all three Tests against Kiwis. Tall, with a powerful fend and a strong runner.

Brian Davies. One of the stars of the last Kangaroo tour and also the World Cup tour. Was first grader in Brisbane at 18 and has been in Brisbane representative sides since 1949. First represented Queensland in 1950. Reserve for second Test in 1950 and in all three Tests in 1951.

against France. In two Tests against Kiwis in 1952 and in all Tests in England and France with 1952-3 Kangaroos. Then played one Test against Great Britain in 1954 all Tests against France in 1955 and against New Zealand in 1953 and 1956. Was adjudged best and fairest winter sportsman—all codes—in Queensland in 1955. Has scored nearly 150 points this year and is good goal kicker.

Norm Provan. Great second rower who starred in all three Tests in 1954 and then on World Cup Tour. Injured last year and missed Test selection and this year a broken cheekbone forced him out until most of the big games were over. Runs well with the ball, serves a perfect pass and is a splendid exponent of the low tackle.

Billy Marsh. Learned football in Balmain but this year played in the country at Cootamundra. Played for N.S.W. against France and Queensland, last year with N.S.W. against Queensland. Also in N.S.W. teams this season. Can play either prop or second row and is a great worker. Last year won newspaper trophy for best and fairest player in Sydney.

Roy Bull. One of the world's best forwards and a tireless worker. Has played in 15 Tests with only one break, that being when injury forced him to miss the final match of the 1954 series against Great Britain in Sydney. Toured England in 1952 and went again with World Cup team in 1954. Went to New Zealand in 1949 and 1953, and has been playing first grade since he was 17.

Bryan Orrock. With South Sydney before going to St. George. Has been prop for both tour hookers, Hammerton when with Souths and now with Kearney. Played for Sydney Colts against France in 1951 and last year for N.S.W. versus France. This year has been in all main N.S.W. teams. A very solid rucker.

Ken Kearney. Captain of this side and the first hooker in history to lead Australia. Has played 16 successive Tests since becoming Australia's No. 1 hooker for third test of 1952 series when he won the ball and Australia won the Test. Has had outstanding success as a coach in club and representative football in Australia since returning from Leeds in 1951. Is making his sixth trip to England having been first with the R.A.A.F. towards the end of the war and then as a member of the 1947 Union Wallabies. He then went to join Leeds and since has been with the 1952 Kangaroos and the 1954 World Cup team. Also went to New Zealand with 1953 Australian team.

Ernie Hammerton. Narrowly missed tour selection in 1952. Played one Test against France in 1951 and has been an outstanding hooker in Sydney football in the past five years. Has been kept out by Kev Schubert and then Kearney but has retained form. Is very fast striker for the ball and should win his share in England. Outhooked several contenders this year to win selection and generally breaks even with Kearney when they meet.
